Edits refer to 99-007r2. Page and line numbers are displayed in the margin. Absent other instructions, a page and line number or line number range implies all of the indicated text is to be replaced by immediately following text, while a page and line number followed by + indicates that immediately following text is to be inserted after the indicated line. Remarks for the editor are noted in the margin, or appear between [and] in the text.

(defined by the processor) or nonintrinsic.	xvi:30
[Editor: add "or modules" after "procedures."]	2:42
A module that is provided as an inherent part of the processor is an intrinsic module . A nonintrinsic module is defined by a module program unit or a means other than Fortran.	255:22:23
