Visitors: Dan Nagle, Craig Shirley, Tom Lahey

1.1.8 Comments from members

Martin: This being the sesquicentennial meeting, reminds me of the centennial meeting in June of 1986. It was hosted, fittingly, by IBM consultant George Paul in Mt. Kisco, NY (close to Yorktown Heights). There was a large cake with "Happy Centennial X3J3" written on it. I got out the pictures to bring to this meeting, but they didn't make it to my briefcase. There were 39 members at that time. Of the 38 attendees at that meeting, there is one member (other than me) in attendance at this meeting. I'll give you three guesses.

Dedo: Dick Hendrickson?

Martin: Correct. Tom Lahey attended the 100th meeting as an observer.
